

Bruiseless

(16h51)

Ja Jess : Andrea Marcellier

: A friend told me

: that when someone builds a house there was a saying – if people didnt like the people buying the house or next subrenters – they would take eggs and nest make a hole in the wall and nest them there – than they would close the wall

: and it would start smelling after some time

: and the people wouldnt know

: where this smell comes from

: that's quite the curse